The decision of the sole arbitrator shall be final and binding on the parties.

18. Injunctive Relief

- 18.1. The Parties acknowledge that compliance with this Agreement is necessary to protect the goodwill and other proprietary interests of the Disclosing Party and that a breach of this Agreement will give rise to irreparable and continuing injury to the Disclosing Party which is not adequately compensable in monetary damages or at law. Accordingly, the Parties agree that the Disclosing Party may obtain injunctive and other equitable relief against the breach or threatened breach of the foregoing provisions, in addition to any other legal remedies that may be available under this Agreement. If the Disclosing Party shall make application to a court of competent jurisdiction for injunctive relief to enforce this Agreement, the Receiving Party waives, to the greatest extent permissible, any requirement that the Disclosing Party post bond or other security as a precondition to an injunction, whether temporary or permanent.
- 18.2. Each Party agrees that if the Receiving Party shall violate any of the obligations under this Agreement, the Disclosing Party shall be entitled to an accounting and repayment of all profits, compensation, commissions, remuneration, or other benefits that the Receiving Party or any third party given access to (or possession of) the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information, directly or indirectly, by the Receiving Party, directly or indirectly, has realized and/or may realize as a result of, growing out of, or in connection with such violation. These remedies shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, any injunctive relief or other rights to which the Disclosing Party is or may be entitled at law, or in equity, or under this Agreement.
- 18.3. In the event either Party initiates action to enforce its rights hereunder, the prevailing party shall recover from the non-prevailing party its reasonable expenses, court costs, including taxed and untaxed costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees, whether suit be brought or not.

19. Electronic Signature

19.1. Counterparts:

This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. To expedite the process of entering into this Agreement, the parties agree that signed Transmitted Copies shall be deemed equivalent to original documents until such time as original documents are executed and delivered.

19.2. Notice:

All notices under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed given:

- (a) when personally delivered; or
- (b) when sent by confirmed fax; or
- (c) when sent by confirmed e-mail; or
- (d) when sent by pre-paid first-class post to the address of the party set out in this Agreement or (if any) such address as such party last provided to the other by written notice.
