16.1The supplier shall warrant that material to be supplied shall be new and free from all defects and faults in material, workmanship, manufacture and shall be of the highest grade consistent with the established and generally accepted standards of materials for the type ordered and shall perform in full conformity with the specifications and drawings. The supplier shall be responsible for any defects (with respect to the specification of the material) that may develop subsequently under the conditions provided in the contract under proper use, arising out of faulty materials, design or workmanship such as corrosion, inadequate quantity of material to meet equipment requirements, deficiencies in design and/ or otherwise and shall remedy such defects at his own cost when called upon to do so by the Purchaser who shall state in writing in what respect the stores are faulty.

16.2 If it becomes necessary for the contractor to replace or renew any defective portion/portions of the supplies under this clause, the provisions of the clause shall apply to the portion/portions of the equipment/ material so replaced or renewed or until the end of the above-mentioned period, whichever may be later. If any defect is not remedied within a reasonable time, the Purchaser may proceed to do the work at the contractor’s risk and expenses, but without prejudice to any other rights which the Purchaser may have against the contractor in respect of such defects.

16.3 Replacement under warranty clause shall be made by the contractor free of all charges at site including freight, insurance and other incidental charges.

16.4 The Contractor/Seller hereby covenants that it is a condition of the contract that all goods/stores/articles furnished to the Purchaser under this contract shall be of the highest grade free of all defects and faults and of the best materials, quality, manufacture and workmanship throughout and consistent with the established and generally accepted standards for materials of the type ordered and in full conformity with the contract specification, drawing or sample, if any and shall, if operable, operate properly.

16.5 The Contractor also guarantees that the said goods/stores/articles would continue to conform to the description and quality as aforesaid, for a period of 18 months after their delivery, and this warranty shall survive notwithstanding the fact that the goods/stores/articles may have been inspected, accepted and payment thereof made by the Purchaser.

16.6 If during the aforesaid period, the said goods/stores/articles be discovered not to conform to the description and quality aforesaid or have deteriorated, otherwise that by fair wear and tear the decision of the Purchaser in that behalf being final and conclusive that the Purchaser will be entitled to reject the said goods/stores/articles or such portions thereof as may be discovered not to conform to the said description and quality. On such rejection, the goods/stores/articles will be at the Seller's risk. If the Contractor/Seller so desires, the rejected goods may be taken over by him or his agents for disposal such manner as he may deem fit within a period of 3 months from the date of such rejection. At the expiry of the period, no claim what so ever shall lie against the Purchaser in respect of the said goods/stores/articles, which may be disposed of by the Purchaser in such manner as he thinks fit. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, all the provisions in the Standard Conditions of Contract relating to the ‘rejection of stores’ and ‘failure’ and ‘termination’ shall apply.

The Contractor/Seller shall, if required, replace the goods or such portion thereof as have been rejected by the Purchaser, free of cost, at the ultimate destination, or at the option of the Purchaser, the Contractor/Seller shall pay to the Purchaser, the value thereof at the contract price and such other expenditure and damage as may arise by reason of the breach of the conditions hereinbefore specified. Nothing herein contained shall prejudice any other right of the Purchaser in that behalf under this contract or otherwise.

17) Variation of Quantities:

The purchaser reserves the right to increase or decrease the quantity to be ordered up to 30 percent at the time of placement of the contract. The purchaser also reserves the right to increase the ordered quantity by up to 30% of the contracted quantity during the currency of the contract at the contracted rates. Bidders are bound to accept the orders accordingly.

23) Force Majeure:

(i) A Force Majeure (FM) means extraordinary events or circumstance beyond human control such as an event described as an act of God (like a natural calamity) or events such as a war, strike, riots, crimes (but not including negligence or wrong-doing, predictable/seasonal rain and any other events specifically excluded in the clause). An FM clause in the contract frees both parties from contractual liability or obligation when prevented by such events from fulfilling their obligations under the contract. An FM clause does not excuse a party's non-performance entirely, but only suspends it for the duration of the FM. The firm has to give notice of FM as soon as it occurs and it cannot be claimed ex-post facto. There may be a FM situation affecting the purchase organization only. In such a situation, the purchase organization is to communicate with the supplier along similar lines as above for further necessary action. If the performance in whole or in part or any obligation under this contract is prevented or delayed by any reason of FM for a period exceeding 90 (Ninety) days, either party may at its option terminate the contract without any financial repercussion on either side.

(ii) Notwithstanding the punitive provisions contained in the contract for delay or breach of contract, the supplier would not be liable for imposition of any such sanction so long as the delay and/ or failure of the supplier in fulfilling its obligations under the contract is the result of an event covered in the FM clause.

24) Settlement of Dispute:

1. For all commercial contracts with Private entities:

In case of any dispute concerning this order both the supplier and RailTel shall try to settle the same amicably through mutual discussion/negotiations. Any unsettled dispute shall be settled in terms of Indian Act of Arbitration and conciliation 1996 or any amendment thereof. Place of arbitration shall be New Delhi. Arbitrator shall be appointed by Chairman & Managing Director, RailTel Corporation of India Limited.

2. For all commercial contracts with Public Enterprises/ Govt. Departments:

In the event of any dispute or difference relating to the interpretation and application of the provisions of the contracts, such dispute or difference shall be referred by either party for Arbitration to the sole Arbitrator in the Department of Public Enterprises to be nominated by the Secretary to the Government of India in-charge of the Department of Public Enterprise. The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 shall not be applicable to arbitration under this clause. The award of the Arbitrator shall be binding upon the parties to the dispute, provided, however, any party aggrieved by such award may make a further reference for setting aside or revision of the award to the Law Secretary, Department of Legal Affairs, Ministry of Law & Justice, Government of India. Upon such reference the dispute shall be decided by the Law Secretary or the Special Secretary/Additional Secretary, when so authorized by the Law Secretary, whose decision shall bind the Parties finally and conclusively? The Parties to the dispute will share equally the cost of arbitration as intimated by the Arbitrator.
